

Q 1 Do you expect God to change you and other people? If not, why not?! How do you think God has been changing you?

Q 2 Does this ring true as an account of a man going through trauma? What coping strategies might Joseph be using here? What coping strategies have worked for you in the past?

Q 3 ‘Basically if you don’t like waiting you are really going to struggle with scripture’. Why do you think so many of the Bible’s characters have to spend so much time waiting?

Q 4 ‘Christian playlists usually miss out the songs of tears’. If church is somewhere where we should be able to be ourselves, do you think we need to embrace the theme of ‘lament’ more? What might that look like? See Psalm 13 and Psalm 88

Q 5 Mrs Potiphar has clearly watched Joseph. We live in a very visual age with most of us spending time on screens every day. What can we do to keep us aware of the fact that ‘looking is rarely just looking’?

Q 6 How well do you process and handle moments of change?

Q 7 Joseph seems to rely on God to give him the right message at the right moment when interpreting dreams. How confident are you about God’s power and desire to speak through you ?
