

E100 Session 13 Genesis 42

Q 1 Do you sense a 'golden cord' running through your life -where, looking back, the 'random' was really God at work?

Q 2 In what ways do you think Christians 'pretend'? How could you help others to 'be themselves'? What would help you to 'be yourself'?

Q 3 What do you feel about Joseph in this passage? Is the Joseph in this passage someone you would like, someone you would trust?

Q 4 How do you know that you can trust people? Is faith and trust always a risk?

Q 5 Is it significant that we have the account of such a damaged man here in scripture? Someone unable, despite his best efforts, to be the best version of himself? Do you also struggle to be the best version of yourself ?

Q 6 As this chapter ends all the strings are loose and yet to be tied up. Yet God was in this. How do you feel about the idea that God is at work in your life, despite many things being unclear and still needing to be sorted?
